Tim Iles

Helen, Dan, Nick, Ben and Bex would like to thank everyone for their support and comfort following Tim's untimely death. We have been inundated with cards, letters, flowers, food and offers of help. The love and support received from the community has been heart-warming and a huge comfort at this very difficult time. Thank you x

Sad News A resident of Pragnells Cottages reports that their car, when parked in the Residents Only Car Park, has been hit 3 times by visitors to the Shop. No-one has owned up or apologised and this has caused considerable stress to the car owner, who can ill afford the repair costs. When using the Shop, please park where clearly indicated – the lay-by.

Lockerley Oilbuying Group

There may be some new to the Lockerley district who are not aware of the oilbuying group and the savings that can provide. Information about the group can be found on the Lockerley website at <http://www.lockerley.org.uk/social-groups/oilbuying/oilbuying-info>. Contacting it is as simple as an email to oilbuying @ lockerley.org.uk or use the contact form that is also available on the website. There may be some participants who may not be receiving emails from oilbuying. This may be a consequence of the GDPR actions taken by your email service provider earlier this year. If you think you have not received any email from oilbuying over the past few months, please contact oilbuying and we will try to reconnect you. One small hint is that some email systems treat bulk email as spam, so you might check the spam or junk folder.

Stewarding at Romsey Abbey

There are always stewards present in Romsey Abbey during the daytime, wearing identifying robes and welcoming all visitors. We operate a rota, with two stewards on each two-hour duty, to give a welcoming feel to everyone coming in. If you don't have working commitments every day, can you spare a couple of hours every fortnight to be a steward? If you can say 'Welcome to Romsey Abbey' or 'Have you come far?' you could do it! and as a newcomer you would have an experienced co-steward for company. An initial 'walk round' and induction is also given before you start. Stewards come from all faiths, and none. Romsey Abbey offers so much to the local area and your support would make a real difference. Email sheilalTIMER@hotmail.com, or ring on 523120.
